Ryan – the document that I just sent in follow-up to Kevin’s email is a very similar to what he sent you last week but with revisions as to the handling of pending requests. This afternoon I am working on more detailed documents as to concrete plans for moving forward. I understand the urgency of the need for a new system. I want to ensure that we have a plan in place that will be successful and meet your needs.

Please let me know if questions.

Becky, when do you think you’ll have a new draft of the FOIA policy?

I ask because I want to sit down with Brian and Steve as well.
